RICHART'S.

SOLDIERS REVOLT

Many Officers of Russian Army in Manchuria Being Killed.

REBELLIOUS TROOPS

Out of Closely Censored Manchurian Dispatches One Grim and Significant Fact Remains.

Both Sides to the Great Slavic Contest Now Preparing for the January Struggle.

Harbin, Manchuria, Dec. 9.—Many officers are being killed by rebellious troops. Reserve officers are not permitted to return home. All messages are censored.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 8, via Eydtkuhnen, East Prussia, Dec. 9.—A period of comparative calm lasting a few weeks may now supervene and both sides will use it in preparation for the January struggle. In a fortnight heavy snows are likely to put an end to the reign of pillage, arson and murder in the country and the lull will give the government a chance to accomplish something tangible and the sober-minded an opportunity to reflect. The latter, however, will hardly enter into the equation. The radical editors are already organizing a movement to defy the new press law even before it is issued. This law abolishes the censorship in cities but not in the country. While it is based on the principle of the responsibility of editors before the courts, it includes besides the usual prohibitions against lese majeste, penalties, fines and imprisonment for incitations to strikes which threaten the safety of the state and which may cause mutinies in the army and navy. Such incitations, it is said, are also punishable with exile. As the publishers have agreed to act together, there certainly will be another struggle.

With an eye to the future the government is making a great effort to relieve the discontent in the army by removing the causes of complaint. The sum of $18,500,000 has been added to the military budget for the improvement of the soldiers' food and clothing. Though the Moscow zemstvoists say they are ready to support Premier Witte on the conditions laid down in the resolutions of the congress, M. Petrunkevitch believes that the idea of cooperation is now too remote, that the only salvation for the government is the retirement of the whole Witte ministry and its replacement by "a ministry having the confidence of the people."

M. Petrunkevitch, who himself is credited with harboring the ambition to succeed Count Witte as premier, modestly declined to suggest a proper man when questioned on the subject, saying that was the prerogative of the sovereign. But he emphatically expressed the opinion that a real liberal ministry would instantly change the situation and rally to its support not only the zemstvoists, but the constitutional democrats in general and the great mass of the orderly disposed people who have not associated themselves with the socialist revolutionists. Though many of his colleagues might be ready to accept or compromise suffrage on an indirect basis for the country personally, M. Petrunkevitch was of the opinion that the people's hopes were so fixed on universal, direct and secret suffrage that it was doubtful whether the elections could be held under any other system. Besides, M. Petrunkevitch was skeptical as to whether Witte's government would accept the compromise offered. He believed the reactionary influence might refuse to go beyond the plan for the extension of the suffrage to the workmen of the cities, the educated classes, merchants and persons paying $120 rent annually.

M. Petrunkevitch was much alarmed at the successful propagation of the socialist doctrine among the peasantry. He said: "A single agitator promising the socialization of state and private lands can inoculate a thousand Moujiks with a blind passion to appropriate land without regard to the rights of others and accomplish harm which a generation of good government could not counteract. The crying need of the hour is a liberal ministry to begin the realization of social reforms toward the betterment of the condition of the peasants and workmen, but drawing a firm line between reasonable forms and socialist dreams, and thus gradually wean the people away from the paths of agitation and discontent."

The Russ printed a rumor that Count Witte had tendered his resignation to the emperor and that he would be succeeded by General Count Alexis Ignatieff. This rumor is untrue.

Independent Editors.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Dec. 9.—An order has been issued that newspapers should not be circulated without being subjected to censorship. The editors have resolved to pay no attention to the order.

In many regions of Russia the local authorities are practically unable to any longer protect the estates, both owing to the insufficiency of the troops and the temper of the soldiers.

WARD'S SUCCESSOR

Gen. Oraa Perry Late Quartermaster Is Now Adjutant General.

A CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Governor Hanly Finally Appoints the Man Whom He Was First Inclined to Reward.

Capt. George Powell, Former Chief of Police of Indianapolis Succeeds Gen. Perry.

Indianapolis, Dec. 9.—Oraa Perry of this city, quartermaster general of the Indiana national guard, has been appointed adjutant general to succeed John Ward of Monticello, who was removed for alleged irregularities in his accounts. Perry is a civil war veteran and has been connected with the national guard for several years. Governor Hanly was inclined to appoint him at the expiration of Ward's first term, but the latter had always been his political friend and he felt he owed the place to him. George Powell, former chief of police of Indianapolis, was named to succeed Perry in the quartermaster general's office. There were several applicants for each place, but Perry and Powell had the inside track. Prosecutor Benedict says that the grand jury will proceed to the investigation of Ward's case without delay.

IN HER OWN BEHALF

Miss Rhoades Enters a General Denial of Charges Against Her.

Indianapolis, Dec. 9.—The board of state charities, investigating charges of cruelty to inmates and general mismanagement on the part of Emily B. Rhoades, superintendent of the Indiana woman's prison and industrial school for girls, practically completed its investigation last night. The last witness of the night session and practically the last witness of the hearing was Superintendent Rhoades, whose testimony was a general denial of the charges of cruelty and incompetency brought against her. Miss Rhoades declared that during her service at the woman's prison and girls' industrial school there had been but a few cases of undeserved harsh treatment toward the inmates and that these were based upon misapprehension of the facts existing at the time.

Charlotte Dye, formerly assistant superintendent of the girls' industrial school and now connected with a like institution at Geneva, Ill., was a. important witness yesterday. She confirmed many charges made against Superintendent Rhoades. She told of many punishments, of insufficiency of food, of rats running through the cells, of girls being made to stand, and of a girl being rolled in a blanket. The punishment record kept by Miss Dye was produced and she read many extracts from it concerning various girls. Governor Hanly took much interest in the record from the punishment book. He announced:

"This is better than the recollections of any witness. It is the most authentic information we can get. We want to go into it."

Miss Dye told of promises broken by Miss Rhoades and said that the latter was reserved and unapproachable.

Miss May Whalen, a former nurse, confirmed previous testimony concerning the chloroforming of a victim in a cell to prevent screaming.

Several witnesses who have already testified have prepared affidavits setting out the fact that they knew of their own personal knowledge many facts prejudicial to Miss Rhoades that they were not permitted to testify concerning when they were on the stand. Some of the affidavits state that one time it was voted by the board to discharge Miss Rhoades because she was incompetent, illiterate and cruel. Governor Durbin informed the board that the action must be rescinded and his wishes were respected, although the board knew that the superintendent was not a fit woman, either from the standpoint of ability or temperament, to conduct the affairs of the prison.

The Deadly Open Grate.

Richmond, Ind., Dec. 9.—While dressing in front of a grate at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrow, Myron, their eight-year-old son, was burned to death. His clothing caught fire from the blaze and he was so badly burned before the flames could be extinguished that death resulted three hours afterward.

Victim of Target Practice.

Laporte, Ind., Dec. 9.—George Fisher, a resident of Chesterton, Ind., was shot and instantly killed at Oklahoma City, where he was visiting his daughter. It has developed that Fisher, who was driving with his daughter, was made the target of two boys who were shooting with a rifle. The bullet entered his head.

Suspicion of Foul Play.

Shelbyville, Ind., Dec. 9.—Coroner Bass has begun a post mortem examination over the body of Michael Ohmer, the wealthy farmer who was found dead in his barn. It is said there is a suspicion that Ohmer was the victim of foul play.

MET DEATH BRAVELY

Vermont Murderess Goes to Gallows Without a Tremor.

Windsor, Vt., Dec. 9.—Without a tremor and without a word, Mrs. Mary Mabel Rogers marched to her death on the gallows at the state prison here and paid the penalty of murdering her husband, Marcus Rogers, at Bennington on August 13, 1902. To all appearances Mrs. Rogers was the calmest person in the chamber of death. She faced her end with the same stoical indifference that had marked her demeanor ever since her arrest, more than three years ago. Greatly to the relief of those officials who were assisting in executing the sentence, Mary Rogers's last hour was remarkably free from harrowing incidents. It had been feared that the woman's wonderful nerve would desert her at the final moment and that she would be carried to the scaffold in a state of collapse. Instead, however, Mrs. Rogers met death bravely. There were no sensational incidents in connection with the hanging. Although the woman was not officially pronounced dead until fourteen minutes and thirty seconds after trap was sprung, she evidently suffered no pain. Her neck was broken at the second cervical vertebra and she lost consciousness instantly the drop fell. A few feeble convulsive movements of her pinioned hands were the only evidences that vitality had survived the first shock.

Although Mrs. Rogers remained calm until the end, she ate nothing on her last day. Prison Matron Durkee prepared breakfast and carried it to Mrs. Rogers's cell, but the prisoner declined it. At noon another meal was sent to Mrs. Rogers and again she refused to eat. During the last few days Mrs. Rogers spent a great deal of time crocheting tokens for relatives and friends. Every night her crocheting hooks were taken away from her for fear that she might do herself some injury, but were returned the next morning. She read the Bible a great deal and received a number of calls from Rev. Mr. Hayes, the prison chaplain, and Rev. Father C. C. Delaney, pastor of the local Roman Catholic parish.

Former Judge in Trouble.

New York, Dec. 9.—William O. Perry, former federal judge of Roff, I. T., who was arrested Wednesday on information from Santa Fe, N. M., that he was wanted here on charges of forgery and grand larceny, and who was paroled for examination next Wednesday, has been rearrested. At the detective bureau it was said that a telegram had been received from Santa Fe charging that Perry was wanted in Chicago and Philadelphia for passing worthless checks.

Miss Alice Gets Her Presents. Washington, Dec. 9.—The valuable presents and trophies of Miss Alice Roosevelt's trip to the Orient have just been placed in her possession. They arrived about five weeks ago, but were given their turn in examination and appraisal, which was concluded yesterday. A messenger from the White House paid the required duty and a big express van brought the twenty-seven boxes to the White House. The unpacking began immediately.

Examine Your Tens.

Washington, Dec. 9.—The secret service has announced the discovery of a new counterfeit $10 United States (Buffalo) note, series 1901, Lyons register, Roberts treasurer. The appearance of the note is described as deceptive. In the portrait the left eye has a decided cast upward. There is also a period between the word "Washington" and "D. C." instead of a comma. There is no period after the "H" in the signature of the treasurer.

Probably Important Arrest. Albany, N. Y., Dec. 9.—The Albany police has received word from the police of Helena, Mont., of the arrest there of Arthur Strong of Rouses Point, N. Y. Strong has been the companion in flight of his cousin, John Cross Hammond, a young carpenter of this city, whose wife's body was found Nov. 23 in a trunk in their flat on South Ferry street, where it is believed to have been for nearly two weeks.

RYAN IN CONTEMPT

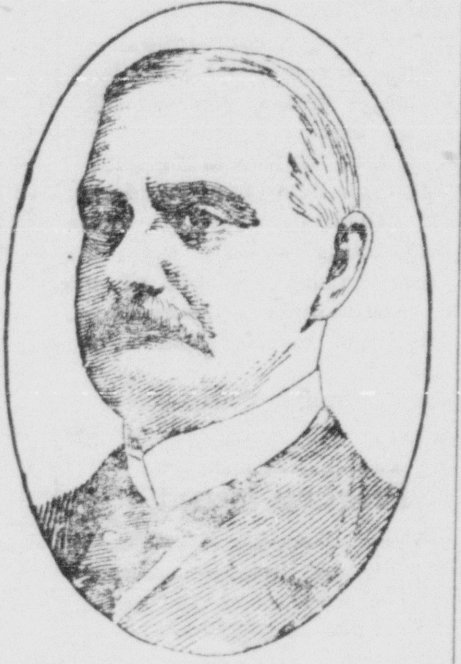

Head of the Equitable Company Defies Insurance Inquisitors.

GIVEN OVER TO JEROME

District Attorney Is Requested to Institute Proceedings Against Thomas F. Ryan.

He Refused to Tell What Sort of a Big Stick Harriman Held Over Him.

New York, Dec. 9.—The legislative committee which is investigating life insurance conditions has determined to send to District Attorney William T. Jerome a request that he institute proceedings against Thomas F. Ryan, financier and owner of the majority of the stock of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, to punish Mr. Ryan for refusing to answer when asked what E. H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific and Northern Pacific Railroad companies, had said to him when Mr. Harriman tried to induce him to share his control of the Equitable society with Mr. Harriman.

THOMAS F. RYAN.

Mr. Ryan was asked whether Mr. Harriman had threatened that results disastrous to Mr. Ryan's interests would ensue or if Mr. Harriman had told him that some action would be taken by the state legislature or any officer of the government unless Mr. Ryan consented to share his stock with him. Acting on the advice of his attorney, Paul D. Cravath, Mr. Ryan declined to answer those questions, although Senator William W. Armstrong, chairman of the committee, directed him to do so. Mr. Ryan, however, did answer one question by saying that Mr. Harriman did not tell him at that time there would be a legislative investigation of the life insurance business unless he gave up part of the Hyde stock.

Mr. Ryan had already testified that he secured control of the Equitable society by paying James H. Hyde $2,600,000 for 502 shares of the total 1,000 shares of the society.

"After you had bought that stock, was there any proposition to share it with you?" asked Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the committee.

"Am I obliged to answer that question?" asked Mr. Ryan.

"I think you ought to, Mr. Ryan," said Mr. Hughes.

"Mr. E. H. Harriman desired to share the purchase with me, and I refused to permit that," replied Mr. Ryan.

Mr. Ryan said he thought Mr. Harriman made his request on the day that Mr. Ryan bought the stock and before the purchase was publicly announced. "What did Mr. Harriman say to you to influence you to make the sale?" It was this question that Mr. Ryan refused to answer and upon which action in contempt will likely be instituted.

THE STATE OF TRADE

Bradstreet Gives a Line on the Current Situation.

New York, Dec. 9.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Holiday trade, begun earlier than usual, promises to break all records, but retail trade in seasonable goods, reflecting irregular weather, cold but mild later, fluctuates in volume. Wholesale trade notes seasonable quietness as the stock-taking period approaches but spring sales continue encouraging. Industries remain active, iron and steel and building in all its branches especially so, and later than ordinary seasonable activity is reported, though current sales tend to narrow. In the textile trades activity is still a feature.

Conscience Betrayed Him.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—"I am a murderer, and my conscience is bothering me more than prison or hanging. Arrest me and I will confess." With this declaration, John Morris, who said his home was in Detroit, Mich., gave himself up to the Chicago police last night. After being arrested Morris declared that he had murdered Miss Annie Anderson, his sweetheart, in Detroit, because she had refused to marry him. Morris declared that he killed the woman by giving her Paris green in a glass of beer.

THE NEED OF PEACE

Some Plan Needed to Restore Order at Woman's Prison.

Indianapolis, Ind., December 9.—The investigation at the Woman's prison has revived the talk in favor of placing the institution in charge of a board of managers consisting of two men and a woman. Some even advocate a man superintendent. For several years there has been an almost continuous quarrel of some sort over the institution. Women who have been appointed members of the board of managers have been unable to get along with each other very long at a time. When there was peace between the board members some of them have been at outs with the superintendent or some of the under teachers. The result was that during the administration of Colonel Durbin hardly a month passed in which there was not some ugly story about the disagreement between those in charge of the institution. An effort was made during the legislature three years ago to enact a law providing for the appointment of a man on the board of managers. A protest was set up, however, declaring that such a proposition was outrageous; yet the state officials who have studied the situation are more convinced now than ever that a man or two on the board will be the only means of bringing sweet peace to the official family.

Practically every man at the state-house is criticizing Governor Hanly for his hasty action in the case of Adjutant General Ward. They seem to feel that there was no occasion for using a "big stick" in Ward's case, as the report of the experts showed that he had overdrawn but $993.63, while Ward's books show that he had $658.37 of the amount in a bank here and was checking against it to pay bills made by the various militia companies. This left a difference of but $235.26 against Ward, which, it is being said, might have been accounted for in a clerical error. It is also being said in Ward's favor that if he had any intention of "grafting" he could have obtained larger amounts, and that if he knew he had overdrawn on the vouchers, he would have hustled around to make good as soon as he learned of the appointment of the experts to investigate the books of the auditor of state.

A prominent local brewer, who very naturally keeps an eye on the result of the anti-saloon crusade, says that the operation of the Moore law has not seriously affected their business up to date. Superintendent Humphreys of the Anti-Saloon League says that over 1,000 saloons have recently been put out of business by remittance, but the brewer declared that the receipts of his company are about the same. "The only noticeable result," he continued, "is that our receipts are not any larger than they were at this time last year. We are not losing, but we are not going ahead. We want to go ahead, as a matter of course. The renewed agitation under the Moore law has had a tendency to keep our business at a standstill, but otherwise it has not hurt us."

A meeting of the Democratic state committee may be held here the latter part of next week for the purpose of fixing a date for the reorganization. Up to this time the Democratic leaders have not been doing anything toward reorganization, but a number are anxious to get the district chairmen together here as soon as possible to talk over plans. Michael Sweeney of Jasper, Dubois county, is the only avowed candidate for state chairman, and he has been very active for several months. Adam Hinkelberger of New Albany is a receptive candidate and it is said that Gilbert Hendon of Bloomfield, "the man who looks like Bryan," will get into the race as soon as the date for the reorganization is fixed.

The semi-annual meeting of Murat Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the MYSTIC SPRING is being held at the Scottish Rite Temple here. There was an attendance of over 1,000 men last night from throughout the state and a class of about 100 new members. Among the number was McClish Monahan of Orleans, son of Jonce Monahan, candidate for the Republican nomination for treasurer of state, who is believed to be the youngest member of the Shrine in this country, as he is but twenty years and three months old.

Indictments Number 500.

Evansville, Ind., Dec. 9.—Five hundred indictments have been returned by the grand jury against saloon keepers in the city for keeping money and card slot machines. The money machines were taken out of the saloons several weeks ago at the instance of Mayor Cotten. Now Prosecuting Attorney Wittenbraker has issued orders against "trade" machines, and last night these were hauled from nearly every saloon in town.

Notice of Open Shop.

New York, Dec. 9.—Ten thousand structural iron workers in this city today were informed by the Employers' association that the "open shop" had been introduced officially. Their pay envelopes contained a circular announcing that henceforth all applicants for employment must go to the employers' bureau in East Fourteenth street and register.

Paris, Dec. 9.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Journal says the telegraphers of the capital are returning to their duties and that the strike in the provinces is in a process of disorganization.

To Stem Tide of Emigration.

Dublin, Dec. 8.—The Catholic bishops of Ireland are making another attempt to stem the tide of Irish emigration. A circular signed by Cardinal Logue and Bishop Sheehan of the diocese of Waterford has been ordered to be read in the churches throughout Ireland warning the younger generation of the evils of emigration, appealing to the people not to be allured by the enticements held forth in letters from the United States, and especially dilating on the dangers that beset the path of girl emigrants.

Over-Burdened Women.

Many a man sees his wife bent and ting at burdens that strain the back and the heart and without any idea of the outrage. Children follow in too quick succession to allow the mother time to recuperate. The womanly organs become displaced, there are debilitating, disagreeable drains, with the added pain of inflamed or ulcerated parts. In this condition the woman bravely tries to carry her household load, afraid to take the rest she needs, lest a meal will be late. No wonder she is pale, weak, wretched, surly of temper and snappish of tongue. She would be false to nature if she were anything else. No persons need help so much as the class of whom this woman is the type. And for such women no help is so sure, so wonderful, as that given by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It restores all the womanly organs to perfect health. It establishes regularity in their functions. It restores the strained and shattered nervous system. It clears up the complexion, rounds out the form and makes life a daily happiness. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol or whisky. It is the best medicine for women. Nothing can be "just as good" as the best. Tell the dealer so if he offers a substitute.

"I wrote to you in 1902, about my case," writes Mrs. Ella W. Robinson, of Nutree, Va. "I was then in a bad condition, and your reply was that I probably inherited the trouble from my mother, and you prescribed Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. About that time I had an attack of fever and was sick for quite a while, so failed to get your Prescription. In December following was married and then my husband brought me two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Before I began to take it I had bearing-down pains at monthly periods, also dizziness. After I had taken one bottle I felt better, and had no more pains. After taking the second bottle I felt better than ever in my life, and in September gave birth to a twelve-pound baby girl. I am very thankful for your good medicine, and shall tell my friends what it did for me, and shall recommend it to all who are afflicted. We think it the best medicine in the world."

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

FOR CHRISTMAS.

Making Somebody Happy is the Popular Idea.

The Christmas fund is growing daily and from present indications many will be made happier this year because of this fund. Did you ever think how little it takes to make a child genuinely happy. A few toys that seem like trifles to older people will bring real joy for days to a child. There are children in Seymour who have known little of the pleasure of having a toy "their really own," and this fund will help many of them to remember Christmas 1905 as one of the happy sports in their lives.

J. H. Hopevell, agent for Mother's bread, agrees to give twenty loaves of bread for the fund.

An English Mantrap.

A mantrap has been found in Alford, Lincolnshire, England, which shows the barbarity of a century or so ago. It is probably the largest mantrap in existence. It is seventy-six inches in length, and its jaws, with teeth protruding two inches, will open fully two feet two inches by eighteen inches. Old time landlords who chose to insist upon their rights in their entirety, as they often did, were at liberty to plant these barbarous engines about in the undergrowth of their enclosed land for the benefit of any trespasser or possible poacher who might chance to set foot near them. Their use was abolished by law in 1827.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Harry Finke Badly Injured While Hunting Near Shields.

Saturday morning Harry Finke accidentally shot himself while hunting near Shields. His left hand was badly shot and may have to be amputated. The shot also took effect in his left side and shoulder. The reports which reach town are very indefinite as to how the accident occurred and as to how serious is the injury. Surgeons from Brownstown and Seymour were called but at this writing they have not returned with report of the injury.

THE Seymour merchants have in stock a fine line of holiday goods. Keep your eye on our advertising columns and you will know where to get what you want.

SEYMOUR is located right for a great holiday trade and will have it all if one who have holiday goods to sell will advertise them. Invite the people to come to Seymour to trade. All the merchants should do this.

CONGRESSIONAL proceedings are not always the liveliest thing in the world, but there are more people awaiting the results of the present session with anxiety than at any other time for several years.

THE rate legislation bill has a good many necessary details, but the pith of it all seems to be that the interstate commerce commission shall be enabled to accomplish something as well as to declare something.

SECRETARY ROOT is persistent in his determination to bring about an improvement in the consular service, and there is many an aspirant who could point out to him at least one change that ought to be made.

GENERAL OREN PERRY has been advanced from quartermaster general to adjutant general to succeed John Ward and George W. Powell, of Indianapolis, has been appointed quartermaster general. These appointments were made by Governor Hanly Friday.

SENATOR MITCHELL, of Oregon, who was recently convicted of fraud, died Friday. Death followed the removal of four teeth at a dental office the day before. The flow of blood following the removal of the teeth could not be stopped and he bled to death.

Teachers Entertained.

The teachers of the city schools were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Austin B. Conrad under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. There was a large attendance of teachers and the meeting proved one of pleasure and profit to all.

Rev. A. B. Conrad opened the meeting with prayer, which was followed by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Aura Smith. Mrs. W. F. Pfaffenberger, president of the W. C. T. U., made the address of welcome and then Mrs. Conrad read an excellent paper on the subject of "Scientific Temperance Instruction in the Public Schools," which was one most interesting and instructive to the corps of teachers. The paper was discussed by Mrs. M. C. Carpenter, Prof. H. C. Montgomery and Mrs. Aura Smith, all of whom talked on the theme in a way most beneficial to their auditors. The musical numbers of a ladies quartet by Mrs. Geo. Dahlenburg, Mrs. A. B. Conrad, Mrs. M. Crabb and Mrs. M. C. Carpenter, and a piano solo by Mrs. W. F. Pfaffenberger, were followed by a talk by Mrs. Conrad, who in her pleasing way told the purpose of the meeting to secure closer cooperation in the matter of temperance between the W. C. T. U. and public school teachers.

Following the program light refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening spent in a delightfully social way, making the whole one of much value to all.

Cigarette Smokers.

Two violators of the anti-cigarette law were arrested here yesterday by Policeman Elrod and would have been tried today but Mayor Graessle was sick and unable to be at his office.

Miss Mina Lwellyn, of Crothersville, was in the city last evening. Miss Nell Blair went to Milan this morning and was accompanied as far as North Vernon by her mother, Mrs. F. M. Blair.

GROUP PICTURE.

Mr. and Mrs. Platter and Four of Their Wedding Guests.

Peter Platter, the photographer, has completed a group picture that is not only a fine picture but one of more than ordinary interest. Mr. Platter is unquestionably the oldest active photographer in Indiana. He began the business in 1854 at Elrod, Dearborn county, and is still actively engaged in the work and enjoys a liberal patronage from the people. He has been a resident of Seymour since 1861.

Pre-Arranged Plan.

After twelve hours investigation on their part, the local police department was able to announce at noon Friday, that nineteen-year-old Nellie Rainey, the pretty Heltonville girl, who has been missing from her home since last Saturday a week ago, is not dead, and they hope within a few hours to advise the heartbroken parents of her present whereabouts.

The police express the opinion that Miss Rainey's mysterious disappearance from home was only a pre-arranged plan, and that a certain man, a former resident of Heltonville figures as a principal in the disappearance.—Bedford Mail.

A kodak is a splendid Christmas present. See Geo. F. Meyer. d22d

Girl Missing.

Miss Nellie Rainey, daughter of J. H. Rainey, of Heltonville, has disappeared from home. Saturday, Dec. 2, she went to Bedford on a visit and to have some dental work done. She was at the dental office and after that walked to the Southern Indiana station with some girl friends and that is the last seen of her. Where she went is a mystery. It is said that her home relations were pleasant. Her father states he fears foul play and will make a thorough investigation. She is 19 years of age.

S. D. Bartly, president; R. S. Kirkham, first vice president; Wm. Ridley, second vice president; C. M. Miller, third vice president; Thomas J. Jones, secretary; Emery H. Breeden, treasurer.

This association will arrange for a big celebration at Corydon on June 29 and 30, 1906, that being the ninetieth anniversary of the adoption of the state constitution under the Big Elm tree. An effort will be made to secure as speakers for this meeting, Governor Hanly, Vice President Fairbanks, United States Senators Beveridge and Hemenway and all thirteen congressmen of the state.

The old state house is still standing and is used by Harrison county as a court house. The old constitutional elm tree is also standing and is the pride of Corydon people.

Dr. J. A. Houser.

This noted lecturer, writer and physician will be in Seymour at the Lynn, Tuesday Dec. 12, from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and can be consulted by the afflicted free of charge. The people of Seymour have heard so many of Dr. Houser's scientific lectures and read so many of his various books and sought his professional aid so often in the last 25 years that it would be superfluous here to more than mention his name, to bring to all a remembrance of the delightful hours they have spent with him in past years. Scores of people have been restored to health in this city and county by Dr. Houser when all else had failed to give relief.

Dr. Houser is the founder of Phrenopathy, the new science of life and the only Phrenopathic physician in the world. The Doctor treats lung diseases and all other chronic diseases and removes tumors without the knife. Call early. Remember the Doctor leaves at 3 p. m. d11d

Road Supervisors.

On Saturday, December 16 in every district of the state the voters will meet at the place designated by the township trustee and elect road supervisors. The election is under the supervision of the trustee. This is an election of no small importance and the farmers should be on hand and elect the best possible men for these places. It is important that an honest and competent man be chosen in every district. The people have a large amount of money invested in roads and they should be kept up. Our own country has spent many thousands of dollars on our roads and they should be under the supervision of the most competent men to be had.

Series of Sermons.

Rev. A. B. Conrad will begin a series of Sunday evening sermons at the Baptist church tomorrow night on "THE PEOPLE OF PARADISE LAND." The subjects will be as follows:

1. The little big man and the big little man.
2. The poor rich man and the rich poor man.
3. The foolish wise man and the wise foolish man.
4. The dead live man and the live dead man.

Services begin at 7:00 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all not attendants at other churches.

DEATH OF SENATOR MITCHELL

Extraction of Teeth Produces Fatal Hemorrhage.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 9.—United States Senator John H. Mitchell is dead.

Senator Mitchell had four teeth extracted Thursday. The continued bleeding from the wound caused his removal to the Good Samaritan hospital, where, after several hours' work, the hemorrhage was stopped. The bleeding again began, but was checked about two hours later. Dia-

Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon, before coming set in as a result of weakness caused by loss of blood, and death followed.

The great crisis in Senator Mitchell's long public career came in January of this year, when he was indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government of valuable lands in Oregon. He was convicted a few weeks ago. He was a candidate for United States senator in 1896, but was defeated in caucus by one vote. He was chosen, however, in 1872 and again in 1885, 1891 and 1901. A strange fact in the history of Mitchell is that he has had two careers and has borne two names. He was born John Mitchell Hipple and soon after attaining his majority married a poor girl, who bore a number of children. Family troubles caused Hipple to disappear, and when he went West he assumed the name of John Hipple Mitchell. When he became prominent and prosperous he married an Oregon belle, who resided in France with her daughter, the Duchess de Recheval. A son, John H. Mitchell, Jr., lives at Minneapolis. Lieutenant Hiram Mitchell, United States army, is also a son of the senator. The first wife is said to reside in Pennsylvania, having been well provided for by Mitchell.

Killed His Wife.

'BE SOBER'

Says President Roosevelt

"It is of incalculable consequence to the man himself that he should be sober and temperate, and it is of even more consequence to his wife and his children; for it is a hard and cruel fact that in this life of ours the sins of the man are often visited most heavily upon those whose welfare should be his one special care."—President Roosevelt to the Miners at Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which quickly developed into the worst kind of a gripe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stepped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip. These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by R. W. Wilhois.

FREETOWN

James Huber and Albert Spaulding returned home from Illinois last week where they have had employment for some time.

Robert Smith, of Caran, Ill., came here last week for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hottinger entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mohr, Misses Carrie Brown, May Lucas and Tessa Lucas and Harry George and Otto Kerner at a twelve o'clock dinner Sunday.

A masquerade party was given at the opera house by Mrs. Dr. Washburn and Miss Carrie Brown Thursday evening Nov. 30th. It proved to be one of the most brilliant and successful social affairs of the season. About forty invited guests were present, each one having for a costume something very original and pretty. Supper was served at 10:30 and the remaining part of the evening was spent in different amusements. Mrs. Washburn and Miss Brown proved themselves to be excellent hostesses.

Harry George who is attending Purdue University spent part of his vacation with friends and relatives here.

The Key That Unlocks The Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by C. W. Milhois.

An Emergency Medicine.

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by C. W. Milhois.
